

Chins and Chin related issues in Europe

Peter van Baaren-Grob, Chinart-The Netherlands

Beside Crufts, earlier this year, Europe's largest dog show for 2015 is without a doubt the World Dog Show held in Milan (Italy) on June 10-14th.

Facebook was buzzing during the days prior to the show, letting everybody know people were on their way. I wasn't, felt pretty miserable as my best friend Onorino lives just around the corner to Milan but one can't have it all and just returned from 3 weeks in Japan I stayed home and sulked.....

The show was organised in the beautiful city of Milan in the North of Italy. The show covered 4 full days with many Specialty Shows -organised by breed clubs- parallel to the world competition.

The judge for Chins was changed only a couple of weeks prior to the show and many had already entered. You have to know that the entry fee is high, starting close to a $100,- for each dog entered, and gets even more expensive towards the final closing date. Never the less, Mrs. Svetlana Radziuk from Belarus had a reasonable entry of 56 Chins.

Best of Breed with CAC/CACIB was won by Evelyn Sabatier from France with her home bred dog CH Shawinigan Fujisan Bogdan.

Evelyn is no stranger when it comes to showing Chins and you'll find her at most of Europe's leading shows to compete with her dog. Fujisan is Evelyn's 3rd world title holder. Her first two titles she won with her homebred boy CH Jenji-San Yakusho of the Wreath'Royal who was Junior World Champion in Bruxelles 1995 and World Champion in Austria in 1996.

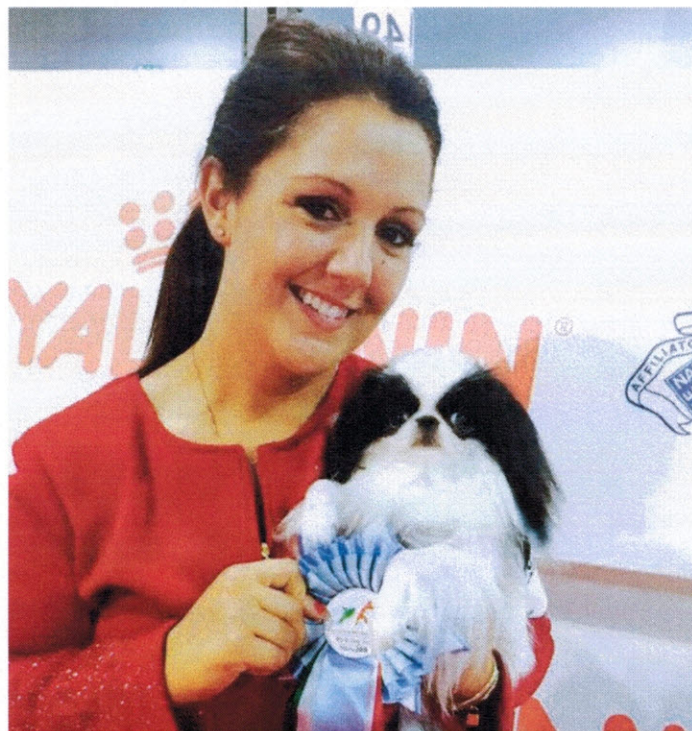

Fujisan is now 5 years old and is French, International, Swiss, Spain, Monaco and Luxembourg champion. Evelyn imported Fujisan's parents from Elena Shevchenko's Hin Satori Kennel from St. Petersburg, Russia. Fujisan's father Hin Satori Hikiiru Hayo won his titles in France, International, Swiss and was European Junior Champion in Zagreb. Fujisan's pedigree is a clever line breeding on the beautiful CH Hin Satori Bionichi Kin and I am pleased to see that even my export to Elena, CH Chinart Tomi-Oka appears in Fujisan's pedigree!

BOS went to the lovely 4 year old CH Omikudzi Matilda Domino (her 2nd world title as she won her first one in Budapest in 2013). Mathilda is owned by Alla Ivannikova and bred by Elena Shilovy from the Omikudzi kennel based in Moscow, Russia.

Mathilda is intensively shown all over Europe and there seems to be no limit to her triumphs: World Winner 2013 & 2015, JCH, JCW, CH Russia, Grand Champion Russia, Eurasia Winner (Russia's equivalent to Westminster), Champion of Swiss, Finland, Cyprus, Romania, Moldova, Georgia, Azerbaijan, Turkey, Ukraine, Philippine, Serbia, Bulgaria, Hungary and Balkan.

BOB Junior went to James Dalton's home bred bitch Fabel-Mi Lucky Star. A lovely win as it was a large class with all major European kennels entered.

BOB Puppy went to Mady Jochems home bred girl Chinlies Art at Kingsoak (Lillie). A stunning little girl with such a great future ahead of her. The day must have been very special for Mady as not only did her little girl win, the full sister to Lillie's mum (bred by Mady) was also at the show and won the CAC! Her name is CH Blessings by Dragonfly at Kingsoak and she is owned by Natalia Morgunova from Moscow, Russia.

This brings me to a very special win that day: BOB in Veteran. This wonderful achievement went to the -as always immaculate presented- CH Delis Sakura Akio Malenkiy Prints.

A dog I once featured in For-Chin September 2011 when he won BOB at the Specialty held the day prior to the World Show in Budapest in 2013.

Tosha, as he is called by his owner, has an incredible amount of titles and wins. Too much to name them all here but a few I can't leave out. He is a champion in most of the East European countries but on top of this his wins at the leading European shows are numerous: Best Of Breed at International Dog Show "Russia-2009", Best Of Breed at International Dog Show "Eurasia-2010", Best Of Breed at International Dog Show "Russia-2010", Best Of Breed at International Dog Show "Eurasia 2011", Best of Breed at French Championship 2011 during World Dog Show 2011 in Paris. Best of Breed at Speciality Show in Austria within World Dog Show 2012, World Club Winner at Speciality Show in Budapest within WDS- 2013 in Hungary, CACIB at International Dog Show "Eurasia 2014", Champion of Eurasia 2014, German Winner-2014, VDH-Sieger-Leipzig- 2014, BOB Veteran X 2 at International Dog Show "Eurasia-2015" and last but not least Speciality Show Winner at WDS-2015 in Milan!

Now looking at the pedigrees of this World Dog Show BOS, the Bitch CAC and BOB Puppy winners the illustrious Tosha appears to be respectively: Father, Grandfather and Great grandfather of the three of them. So much for being able to push for type!
